“ I remember he would be delivering mail to my grandparents Harold and Frances Barlow, he would come in get a cup of coffee and a sweet roll or bisquit and sausage and sit on the porch and visit. He was a sweet man and gonna be missed by many. We love you Ronnie and prayers for the family.

All his customers on Route 4, Hazlehurst, depended on Ronnie. His arrival at their mailbox was the highlight of their day. He was the representative of an excellent mail carrier. I was honored to have him as part of my crew. Vaya con Dios, my friend.
