“ Rosalie was so special to me. I really got to know her when she joined a writing group in Golden Days several years ago. We enjoyed writing and reading to each other what we had written. She was so supportive of others in the group and her contributions about her memories were entertaining and interesting. We have been missing her sweet smile and happy disposition since she moved to Jackson. Our sorrow turns to joy when we know she is now in the presence of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.,
