“ We had the pleasure of getting to know Rubel while attending Grace Presbyterian Church. He was in the same small group we were in for several years as well. He was always positive. He was so grounded in the scriptures and really knew how to "rightly handle the word of truth". He was such a faithful and kind person. We loved his "down to earth" demeanor and humor. It is shocking to hear of his sudden passing since he was so energetic and lively. He, along with the others who worked to start Grace Presbyterian, devoted themselves to a labor of love for Christ. We pray for his family and friends, that they will know the peace of God that passes understanding. I pray that our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, will be in them, and that they can take comfort in Rubel's profession of faith in Christ that he not only professed with his mouth but lived with his life.,
