“ As we like to refer to each other’s moms, “Miss Ruth” was a surrogate mother to me and my 3 siblings, as mine was to Rita and Jim when we were all growing up-She was always fun unless she was “meaning business” at the moment (same as my mother) but once after a Sunday sermon, I started calling her Naomi’s daughter in law, referring to Ruth in the Bible-it took her only a second to get it, and she loved it and started laughing...I’ve called her that ever since; sadly, the last time we visited was shortly before my own mama died in 2019, but she knew she was always in my heart, and in my prayers...

I bet she nearly knocked JamesRoy down running into his arms! My mother once said they never had an argument, so I that reunion must have been extra-sweet...it’s hard to be sad for her after lengthy illnesses are finally over, and suffering is done, but to Rita and Jim, your sorrow is fresh and hard,,,please know that your friends, family, and “surrogate family” are covering you in prayer for strength to get thru the coming days, and for a gentle peace to settle over you both as you take to heart and remember that “to be absent from the body is to be present with The Lord.” We love y’all!

This is so sweet and heartfelt. I miss her but I know she's happy again so I can't be sad for that reason alone. It's what she talked about most in the last weeks of her life. And you have always been and always will be our family. Love you!
