

Samuel Kay Farmer,

December 19, 1942 - November 6, 2012

Samuel Kay Famer, 69, passed away November 6, 2012 at Forest General Hospital in Hattiesburg. A Graveside services will be 2pm Friday, November 9, 2012 at Strong Hope Cemetery. A Stringer Family Funeral Home in Hazlehurst is handling arrangements. A Mr. Farmer was a native of Jackson. A He graduated from Mississippi State and received a degree in chemical engineering. A He retired and moved to Clinton where he received his Masters in Counseling at Mississippi College. A Mr. Farmer attended Wildwood Baptist Church. A He was active in the Clinton Lions Club. A He lived in Illinois and Hazlehurst before retiring in Hattiesburg. A He is survived by his wife Caroline Farmer of Aurora, Il; daughters, Katherine Farmer of Murray, KY and Janet Simpson of Diamond Head, MS; mother, Dorothy Izard Farmer of Hazlehurst; sister, Linda Piazza of Clinton; and grandchildren, Matthew Simpson, Elizabeth Simpson and Ryan Simpson. Memorials may be made to The American Diabetes Association.,

Tribute Wall

“ Samuel Kay Farmer,

January 28, 2023 at 04:45 PM