“ Stevie Barlow is one of my Dad's six brothers, and is the most recent of five of the brothers to pass away. My Dad, Edward "Wimp" Barlow passed away in November of 1998 at the age of 63 and was preceded in his death by brothers, Claude, Aubry and Hugh. Harold and Thomas are the two surviving brothers. It was evident to me that my dad loved his brothers very much. I remember visiting each one of them in their homes when I was growing up. We visited with Aunt Lorilla and Uncle Stevie as well as his other brothers on many occasions. I recall Stevie being very quiet and reserved. Despite the fact that he was a mechanic, he was very neat and clean. He was always wearing his dark colored mechanic shirt with his name on it. I know that he was a decent and honest hard working man. I know he will be missed so much by his closest loved ones. But I know that he is smiling now and loving his time with his brothers who have gone on before him as well as his parents.,
