“ I have lost another childhood friend. Sylvia and I grew up together in the best little town on Earth, Crystal Springs. I remember her parents very fondly. Sylvia was the McBrides' only child. Theirs was a loving, happy family. I'm very thankful that I had a brief, but very happy, visit with Sylvia at Copiah Living Center just a few weeks ago.

“ Always beautiful, I didn't know she was a beauty queen. Lively, lovely, entertaining, her tales could have a listener howling in laughter. I treasured her friendship and that of the 'old coot' she married. Hers and Kennel's personalities were blessings to those who knew them. I prayed for her comfort in these final days. RIP, my friend, Sylvia.
