“ Thanks for the memories, Lynette. I can think of so many. when you got pretend-aggravated with your mother, you used the Thomas tone to say, "Jo-Ann," even though I know it was spelled Joan. You liked to be busy and active, always on the go. You and Moore were the makers and accumulators of memories for your family. You loved family, family get togethers, reunions, picnics. Will was the apple of your eye these later years; I did not get to hear much of your second grandson because your Metor/Monitor writing was sporadic.

I hate that you were hindered by your illnesses from continuing this life you loved. But I know God strengthens us in the difficult until He becomes our strength and we must acknowledge Him as our strength. You faced your difficulties with faith and trust. Thank you for your example.

You lived life largely on a community scale because you loved your hometown. You knew so many people, Even after your girls were gone from the high school, you still showed up as substitute on your days off. Thank you for caring.

I wanted to be there to hear the words and sing the songs today for your funeral. I think your spirit is indeed saying, "Free at last."

“ Sad to see Lynette’s health decline. It has been a challenging journey since she had to retire from work after having been a coworker for over 31 years. We will miss her. Our thoughts and prayers are with her family.

“ Lynette was one of the kindest, sweetest people I ever knew. She was the child and grandchild of other kind, sweet people, many of whom I was privileged to know (her parents and grandparents). Lynette was especially good to my mother, who adored her. For many years Lynette took care of my mother's beauty shop needs, usually on a weekly basis. I am thankful that I knew this good lady and am deeply sympathetic to her family for their great loss.
