“ We have known Travis (Pop Pop) for almost 5 years now. When Linda and Jeff got married at our house in 2013, he was escorting Linda, but my daughter was pinning the boutonniere on his collar. Travis and Kathy could not stop laughing because she was afraid she was going to stick him. It was a touching laugh and one of the first times I appreciated his lightheartedness. He was the best Pop Pop my granddaughters could ever have. He loved to rock them and as they got older would get down and play with them. When he was sick, they would get up in bed with him. We knew he knew who was there and how much they loved him. He will be greatly missed by our family, but especially by Lauren, Amarina and Josie. Robby & Mary Parker
