“ Veva Wolbrecht was my friend from the moment I met her. she took care of my brother Randy and her 3 wonderful children. She went back to collage and graduated. She was a talented cook, singer, and teacher. She helped people when ever she could(which was a lot). She kept me sane though some very hard times. I missed her so much when she moved from here. I'll miss her more now. But she is in a much better place now so we'll see her when its our turn.

“ Mom was and will always be an inspiration for me. I try to be as strong as her. I always stayed close to her. I couldn't imagine my life without her in it. We fought. We loved. We talked. We played. We sang. We reminisced. I always make sure my kids know where we came from...
Love you mom forever and always, Elwyn

“ What a joy it was to know Mrs. Veva at Pine Crest. She was a wonderful example of persevering in spite of. She was always positive, never down and always looking forward. She talked of William Faulkner, enjoying music and wanting to share songs with us, and enjoying cooking. One day she shared her chicken and dumplings secrets, and I was also amazed when I saw her knitting. I don't think there was anything she couldn't do. My brother and wife are coming from Fla. Wed., and I'd told them several weeks ago that I wanted to introduce them to Mrs. Veva. My sister-in-law is from Canada and loves to read. I knew they'd really enjoy visiting.

Another thing she mentioned was imagining how gorgeous the colors in heaven would be. I'm thinking she's really enjoying them now and free from all illnesses. How wonderful!

Thank you for bringing her to Pine Crest.
