“ I am going to miss you Wendy. We went to school together, cheered together, and we graduated together. Our classmates are going to really miss you. Your smile, your friendship, all things about you meant the world to me and others. You were always smiling or cheering someone up. You will be greatly missed girl. May God have mercy on the family and friends. You were loved by so many and will be missed by so many. I will pray for your family in this sad time in their lives. Lord, I just come to you now to pray for this precious woman's family, that you wrap your arms around them and comfort them. Lord, give them the strength and mercy during this time. Thank you Lord for the time we all had with Wendy. Thank you Lord for your grace and mercy. We love you girl and your family.,
