“ The most serious accident i had on my last delivery baby years girl that Wes never see and touch. In years later, I kised wes forehead while he was in hospital several years ago. Unfortunately hospital didn't allow under age enter wes room. I was afraid that day may last day of his life experience. Never have a chance to meet my daughter. He fought hard to stay live through. He is a great warrior. My dream is to get my girl to him but WHEN ? One day he arrive my hometown to purchase a project cars. He requested to carsitter his cars. I said YES. He comes toward my home and finall see and touch my dear girl. It actually wait for 10 years finally dream comes true. One of my happier day he meet my all children. Thanks Uncle Wes for sharing a best abilities of what deaf/ blind can.
