

Wiley Wilson

June 22, 1933 - November 6, 2015

Wiley Wilson, 82, passed away on Friday, November 6, 2015. His loved ones were there by his side in his Crystal Springs home. Service arrangements are as follows: Visitation on Sunday, November 8, from 3-6 and Monday, visitation at 10 with the funeral at 11. Both visitation and the funeral will be at the Stringer Funeral Home in Crystal Springs.

Mr. Wilson was born in Covich County on June 22, 1933. He was employed at Kuhlman Electric, now called ABB, for 42 years.

Wiley, also known as "Pete" or "PeeWee" was a man well known for his hobby of repairing boat motors. He certainly enjoyed making people happy with his repairs; but, more than that, he simply enjoyed visiting with people. Many came from more than a hundred miles away. Wiley's other hobbies included fishing and hunting. His greatest love, however, was his love for his wonderful grandchildren and great-grandchildren who he loved to spoil.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Wiley & Winnie Wilson. Wiley is survived by his loving wife Della Phillips Wilson and his son, Lynn Wilson (Wanda) of Branson, Mo., daughters, Cindy Stevens (Mark) of Brandon, Ms, Becky Forman (Kenny) of Gloster, Ms., Sandra Beverlin (Steve) of Lancaster, Pa. Sisters: Nell Gillis of California, Blanch Ann Mobley, Pearl, Ella Louise (Nippy) Gragg of Pearl, and Brothers, Tommy Wilson (Linda) of Pearl, and Edgar Ray Wilson (Johnnie) of Crystal Springs, 12 Grandchildren, 3 step grandchildren, 14 great grandchildren, 7 step great grandchildren.

The family sends a very special thank you to the employees & staff of Sta-Home of Copiah Co. & Hospice.

In Lieu of flowers, Donations may also be made to Gideon Bibles Int., P.O. Box 14088, Nashville, TN 37214
