“ Bill Lawless was a very good guy. I am thankful that he and I were friends from boyhood, even though he was a few years older than I. We went to the same church (First Baptist, Crystal Springs) and to the same school (Crystal Springs Consolidated School). I admired and respected Bill during the years he served as a Jackson police officer. He was dedicated to his work and was an honorable and highly regarded policeman. Bill had "good blood" in him. I was especially fond of his dad, Mr. "Shorty" Lawless, who was a very tall gentleman. In retirement Bill was a quiet and peaceful citizen who minded his own business and lived happily in the house in which he had grown up. I send my sincere condolences to his family.
