“ Lots of good memories with Wil growing up at young kids. Sleepovers at each other's houses, romping around barefoot in the woods, playing with Transformers, riding four wheelers....all kinds of good stuff. Wil was always such a solid, stand up guy that I admired and respected, even if we weren't as close as we were as young children. All of my love to his wife, son, Lynda, Steve, Rachel, and David.

“ We did not personally know Wil, but our son, Avery Mathes thought a lot of him. Avery and Wil hunted together several times and were good friends at work. Avery shared pictures of Wil with us. It was easy to see in the pictures how proud of his son and how happy he was around him. We are extremely sorry for you losing someone so close, so young, so unexpected. Hang onto those happy memories. Replay them in your mind. In time, write them down so you can share them with your son. He had a very special dad. We are praying for each of you and will be for the days ahead.
