“ For the Love of Winnie

*You may have called her Winnie Faye; I just called her Winnie.
She loved to travel and have fun, and this she did aplenty.*

She loved her Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and Bobby and her family.

She especially loved her grands and greats, who lovingly called her Mammy.

Friends like her are hard to find.

I'm blessed to say she was a friend of mine.

I know Bobby was anxiously waiting for her to come.

To join him and others gone before them, in their new Heavenly home.

So until we meet again; we will miss you, my sweet friend.

For we as believers know, this is not the end.

*Missing you already; love you,
Marilyn Woodard*

“ I knew Winnie for many, many years and can attest that she was a very sweet lady, a friend to multitudes of people, and a devoted wife and mother. She was a person of deep Christian faith and I am very thankful that I was privileged to know her. She and Bobby were a great couple and they will be greatly missed. I extend my sincere sympathy to her children and grandchildren.
